DPENING OF NEW "Y" AT ARMY POST

Gen. A. P. Stewart Chapter, U. D. C., in Charge of Dedication Thursday.

Chapter Service Flag of Over One Hundred Stars to Be Dedicated Soon.

In order to get the names of the chapter who are now in the army, a called meeting of the Gen. A. P. Steware chapter U. D. C., was held Monday afternoon. The purpose of securing these names was to place them on a service flag. Miss Mollie Kavanaugh reported over 100 names had been turned in, and said the list was still incomplete, and it was the desire of the chapter hot to omit any one name. A service flag will be dedicated when Watkins, the president, announced that the chapter would dedicate Y-324 at the army post, which they have adopted. Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. An informal reception will be held for the soldiers and the president had been informed that several hundred would be present. The quey'on of whether the Confederate fing would be used in the decorations of the building came up, and the president stated that it would not, that the fing was just as dear to their hearts as ever, but "we" were fighting under one fins, now, and only that one fing would be used on military occasions. A suggestion was made that the Confederate Veterans attend the opening and wear their uniforms. Mrs. Mary Middleton was appointed a chairman of one, to make arrangements to get the veterans to the fort.

This "Y" is said to be the most beautifully located of any at the post, and the Stewart chapter expects to adorn it with flowers, and otherwise add to its attractiveness. It is within easy reach of the Chickamauga park car line terminal at Dodge Ga. nounced that the chapter would dedi-

LUNCHEON TODAY FOR PRESIDENT OF CHATTANOOGA WRITERS' CLUB

Compliment to Miss Ernestine Noa, Who Has Been Actively Interested in Women's Welfare Work.

The Chattanooga Writers' club entertained today with a luncheon at the Hotel Patten in honor of Miss Ernestine Noa, president of the club. Miss Noa leaves Wednesday for North Carolina, where she goes to accept a position with the University of the State. The luncheon was served in the green parlor of the hotel and the guests all seated at one round table. Golden glow was used for the decorations and blended beautifully with the green furnishings of the rooms. Handpainted placards were placed at each painted placards were placed at each plate. Mrs. Jeanette Sterling Greve acted in an informal way as toast-mistress, and all of those present paid tribute in well-chosen words to the sterling worth and ability of their leader, adding regrets that she was leaving their midst for a new field of word. It is seldom that such an ex-clusive compliment has ever been given to any one individual ruest, and all of those present shared in comradeship with the honoree, wiving been intimately associated with her in various activities.

OVERSEAS CAP WILL NOT SUPPLANT CAMPAIGN HAT

Investigation Proves That the Headgear Now Used in America Is Best.

Frequent reports are heard to the ef-tect that the overseas cap is to supersede the campaign hat throughout the army Although the overseas cap is recognized as being desirable for the service for which it is now authorized, there is no which it is now authorized, there is no possibility that the campaign hat is to be discarded. The campaign hat was adopted only after thorough investigation, and after long years of study and experience as the most efficient piece of headgear for our fighting men in this country and the islands. The hat climate of the second of the seco country and the islands. The hat cil-mate of the southern parts of this coun-try, especially the southwest, where it is likely that many of our troops will be stationed for a long time to come, is suf-ficient argument against the adoption of the overseas cap for general use. Dis-cussion of sultable headgear has brought out a few adverses of the believes simout a few advocates of the helmet similar to that worn by British troops in each additional wound: but not more hot countries. COUNTY COURT APPROPRIATES $5,000 Its Part for Hospital at Crittenton Home for Treatment of Women.

of Women.

At a meeting of the county finance committee held Tuesday morning at the courthouse a resolution was unanimously adopted giving the county judge the authority to borrow ...000 for the purpose of aiding in the establishment of a hospital for venereal diseases at the Florence Crittendon home. The meeting was the aftermath of one held several days ago between county and city officials and the government health authorities at which it was suggested to Judge J. B. Ragon, who attended the meeting, to call a meeting of the finance committee of which he was chairman and pass the resolution introduced Tuesday morning.

Those Present.

Those members of the committee present were Judge J. B. Ragon and Squires H. F. Lawrence, J. J. Bork, H. B. Caulkins and Ben Bush. The point was raised by Squira Lawrence to the effect that the county court had some time ago appropriated $5,000 to the Crittenden home and he wanted to know what had become of this money. know what had become of this money. However, it was explained that the first $5,000 was for the erection of the home and the $5,000 to be appropriated

Tuesday was for the erection of a hos-pital for the cure of diseased women. Squire Lawrence stated that he was not objecting to any good work that could be done but reerely wanted to know what he was doing. He said he know what he was doing. He said he was in favor of appropriating another $5,000 for the erection of a hospital for the internment of men arrested in connection with the women. "I am against the interning of women unless the men who are equally guilty are also interned."

also interned."

Calls for $5,000.

The resolution passed Tuesday was brought up at the last quarterly meeting of the court by Earl Wester, who asked the court to appropriate $5,000 for such a motive. However, after some discussion, on motion of Squire Theo King, seconded by Squire Fred Foster, the matter was referred to the county judge and the finance committee and it was for this purpose the finance committee met Tuesday morning. There was no other business before the committee and they adjourned fore the committee and they adjourned for probably their last session, as sev-eral of its members go out with the
